The Cork Examiner says it has excellent reasons for knowing that the report current for the last few days that Stephens had really left Ireland is correct, and that Stephens, prior to bis departure, enjoined on the members of the Brotherhood in Ireland the advisability of paying more attention for the present to their peaceful pursuits than they had been doing for some time. The Examiner adds that Stephens's wife was in Cork, intending to sail for America on the 15th, in the City of Booton.

Satterthwaite's Circular of the evening of the 14th Satterthwaite's Circular of the evening of the 14th reports a very firm market for American securities, with a strong tendency upward. Five-Twenties have been freely bought for continental account, and closing exactly at 71, showing an improvement of one per cent on the week. Advancing quotations from New-York for Eric and the comparatively lower rate ruling here have induced large purchases, and they have steadily risen to 504 2564. Illinois Central shares and in active demand, in expectation of the forthcoming favorable report, closing 794. To-day (Thursday) there has been a further improvement in the above, under the Allamania's news.

FRANCE.

The Moniteur du Soir anticipates that the Powers now in conference on the Principalities will consider, in concert with the Porte, whether it would not be expedient to give a definite character to the concessions provisionally made by Turkey in 1861. The Conference will also examine the convention regulating the savigation of the Danube.

Diet.
Gen. Von Mantentill, Governor of Schleswig-Holstein, had published a decree of the King of Prussia threatening heavy punishments against any one attempting to establish any other authority in the Duchies than that of the King of Prussia and the Emperor of Austria. All acts tending in that direction are also threatened with heavy penalties.

AUSTRIA.

The draft of the address in reply to the imperial rescript, had been read in the Lower House of the Hungarian Diet. It deplores not only the rejection of all the requests of the House, but also the suspension of those laws requiring no modification. All the various points of the imperial rescript are controverted and the redstablishment of parliamentary and legal municipal government is again demanded.

The reading of the address elleited general applause, and the House rose and cheered Herr Deak.
